

SANDHILLS EAST LTD COOKIES POLICY

Any reference to we or us in this Cookies Policy shall mean Sandhills East Ltd, Luxembourg Branch which is a private limited company registered with the Luxembourg Trade and Companies Registered with registration number B167113 and have our registered office at Eagle Building, 6 Rue Lou Hemmer, Senningerberg, L-1758, Grand Duchy of Luxembourg.

This Cookies Policy applies to the Brands and Services and their corresponding Websites (the Websites) which are owned and operated by Sandhills Group Companies.

1. DO WE USE COOKIES?

Yes, we use cookies and similar technologies (hereinafter collectively referred to as “cookies”) to enhance the customer experience of using our websites. By continuing to use our websites and services, you agree that we may use cookies for the purposes set out in this Cookies Policy.

We use cookies to enhance your experience of using our Websites. The information is used to customise your visit by storing your search details to the browser, saving your shortlists and for interacting with social media platforms from within our site. By storing cookies it enables us to save your recent searches and the holidays you have viewed, in order to save you time when you revisit the site.

We also use cookies and software tools to collect and analyse site usage data, related to customer use and patterns. This data is used to improve our Websites and enhance user experience.

We may place cookies on partner websites to advertise our brands and/or products. These cookies are mainly used to display content tailored to your interests and to evaluate our content (including advertising). Our cookies are also used by third party sites in order to provide advertising that is relevant. This relevance is based on a profile built from your previous visits to our sites, including the products you have visited.

2. WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are very small data files that are stored in your web browser on your computer, tablet or smartphone the first time you visit our website. They enable our website to remember your actions and preferences over a certain period of time.

We may place or identify a unique cookie, from the customer referred to in the advertisement, on your browser. By placement of the advertisement, information about your visit to the website is collected (e.g. how often you have seen an advertisement).

3. WHY DO WE USE COOKIES?

We use cookies for the following purposes:

- To customize your visit.
- To improve our websites.

- To save a customer’s recent searches to save them time when revisiting our websites.
- To provide customers with advertising that is relevant (third parties are involved in providing this).
- To analyse and compile collected data to build a profile about customers.
- For statistical purposes such as:
  - Pages viewed during a visit.
  - Type of device, OS, screen size.
  - Data is used to improve existing features and user experience on desktop, mobile, etc.
- To collect the following information:
  - Information regarding what customers search for.
  - Information on what customers view.
  - Information on what customers click on.
  - Information on what customers access in and through the websites, our marketing emails, and text messages including pages visited within our websites.
  - Information regarding customer shortlists.
  - Date, geographic location, and time customer visits our websites.
  - Data related to customer use and patterns on websites.
  - Data regarding products and services customers have visited.
  - Data regarding type of browser being used (Mozilla Firefox, Google Chrome, Internet Explorer).
  - The website from which the user has accessed our websites.
  - Websites users went to when they left our sites.
  - Data regarding how often users visit and use the websites.

4. WHICH COOKIES DO WE USE?

General Information

Source (Where cookies come from)
First Party Cookies	These cookies are provided by us and used by various features on our site. Examples may include customizing a user’s visit, providing statistical information, and verifying a user’s identity for security purposes.
Third Party Cookies	These cookies are provided by “Third Party” vendors who provide products and features we have integrated into our site. Examples include social media sites, ad networks, and security systems.

Expiration (How long cookies last)
Session Cookies	These cookies are added when a user starts to browse our site or interacts with a specific feature and are deleted when the browser is closed.
Persistent Cookies	These cookies are added when a user starts to browse our site or interacts with a specific feature, but may remain stored on your device until a certain termination date is reached (in terms of minutes, days or years from the creation/update of the cookie). Cookies used by us have a maximum period of 2 years from the date when they are initially installed or if they are subsequently updated, from the date of the update.

Type (What application uses the cookie)
Email Cookies	These cookies are added by programs we use to send various mass marketing e-mail campaigns. They are used to track statistics about the mail campaign.
Flash Cookies	These cookies are added when a browser displays a Flash application. Flash is used to display some versions of our digital publications. The cookie may be used to track statistical information pertaining to the digital publication, such as pages were viewed.
Website Cookies	These cookies are added when browsing our website. Their uses may vary, however, to give an impression of which website cookies we use and how they work, please see the list below.

Website Cookies

To give an impression of which website cookies we use and how they work, we have compiled the following list. This list is not exhaustive but rather provides examples. Also note that the names of cookies may change:

Website Cookies
Categories	Examples	Description
Ad Network	AID __gads	Third party cookies that are used to display Ads. Sources include Google and DoubleClick
AddThis	__atuvc __atuvS ATUVC ATUVS	Third party cookies provided by AddThis. Allows for users to easily share our content over various social media platforms.

Security	BIGipServer __cf D_ SANDHILLS TS __RequestVerificationToken AUTHENTICATIONREDIRECT SSOReturn SSOFB Fedauth1	First and Third party cookies that are used for various validation and security purposes.
Session	ASP.NET_SessionID CompareListings TempForm TRACKING UserSettingsSession	First party cookies used by sites to identify a user's session for various features.
Settings	UserSettings KeepUserOnSite	First party cookies that stores settings and preferences pertaining to features a user has interacted with on our site. The information stored includes screen size, whether to display thumbnails or not, currency to use, units of measurement, previous pages for back links, and approximate location in order to display listings closest to the user at the top of search results.
Tracking	OriginalID USERID	First party cookies that allows us to collect information about a user's visit. Including pages visited, IP address, and information about browsers and devices used.

Some of the above tracking cookies are used to identify repeat visitors or users that have an account with us. If the user has ever logged in, their visit does tie back to their account. We do not share this information with anyone, but we do keep a record to help improve the site, investigate possible issues, etc.

Contact information is never stored within the cookies we use and is only collected when a user registers for an account or when certain features are interacted with. Examples include our Send A Message or Contact Us features. In these instances, the user may provide us contact information in order to receive a response either from us or another customer they are contacting through our sites.

Financial information is never stored within the cookies we use and is only collected in the following instances:

- Bidding Rights – When a registered user request the right to bid on auctions hosted on our sites, we ask for a bank name and contact information to verify the user meets our criteria for bidding rights.
- Partner Sites – Occasionally, we partner with or link out to third party sites that specialize in additional services our customers may be interested in. Examples may include sites that arrange for fuel delivery services, escrow, financing, hauling or other services relevant to the industry. These sites may collect a user's financial information in order to generate an estimated quote for the service. For convenience, we may pass information about the current page the link is on to the third party site to auto-populate some forms.

We also make use of Google Services, such as Google Advertising and Google Analytics. Google Analytics uses its own, completely anonymous, tracking data. Google Analytics does not collect, nor do we provide them any contact or financial information. We want to inform you that you can download and install the Google Analytics opt-out browser add-on, if you do not want your data collected with Google Analytics.

5. DO WE HOST THIRD-PARTY COOKIES?

Cookies from third-party websites may be stored on your device with the purpose of personalising and/or improving the content (including advertising content) and/or for security and verification purposes that you may be offered while navigating. Depending on the platforms, some third-party cookies may be stored, including:

- Social networking content: we may publish social networking content on our platforms. Therefore, when you click on the content in question on our platforms, a cookie from the relevant social networking site may be stored on your device. We suggest that you read the cookie policy of these social networks for more information.
- Flash: Flash Cookies are files stored by Flash software. This software is often installed as an extension of your Internet browser in order to display dynamic objects/fields such as animated graphics or videos. Therefore, Flash Cookies may be installed when the Flash application is used. We suggest that you read the cookies policy at the Adobe website (http://www.adobe.com/lu\_en/#).
- Security and verification: In order to protect our content, network, and users, we may utilize third party solutions that employ cookies in their services.

6. MANAGING AND DISABLING COOKIES

Most browsers accept Cookies automatically. However, they offer settings to block and delete cookies. Disabling cookies all together is not advisable, because some websites may not function properly and you may not be able to take advantage of all the features offered by our website. However, if you really need to disable cookies, for instructions on blocking and deleting cookies, see the privacy and help documentation of your specific browser's website. If you use more computers and/or browsers you will need to disable cookies on each computer and on each browser separately.

If you limit the ability of our websites to set cookies, this may prevent you from using certain features of our website properly and your user experience – which is no longer personalized for you – may deteriorate. You may also be able to opt-out from certain cookies through third party cookies management sites. Disabling cookies may prevent you from using certain parts of our websites. If you delete your cookies from the browser, you may need to remember to re-install opt-out cookies.
